Old Business

Father McCabe: St. Joe's is highly, highly encouraging masks at all events. Opening of the church and school is going well. There are 2 confirmations coming up. The two First Communion went well. Daily Mass is going well. Maybe even more attend than normal. The school is rotating students for daily mass. Confession is well attended. The Sunday 7:30 AM and 9:00 AM Masses are near capacity. There is additional capacity available in Resurrection Hall. There is also the Communion service on Monday at 7:30 AM. Last rights, and Apostolic Blessing is occurring when needed. Father is pleased. Father is proud of how the parish has responded to the pandemic. Father will err on the side of safety. Upbeat but take the precautions. No cases of the virus have been transmitted at the Church or the School. The parish is and will follow the city and state guidelines.

New Business

Nancy Krumland

Christmas – Maybe add 2 more Masses to accommodate everyone. Perhaps we could sign up and share the information with all to let everyone know what the crowd will be. Jill will accumulate thoughts on this. Grace will write up a request and investigate a way to gather information on attendance. We need to start looking into next year's parish council candidates. The slate is needed by the first part of December. The election is held on Catholic School Mass, the last weekend in January. Normally, we vote at Mass. This might miss many of our parishioners because of the virus. We should look into some electronic way of voting.

Tuesday, December, 15 at Nancy Krumland's house.
Sunday, January 31 to count the ballots.
Tuesday February 23

Closing Remarks and Prayer

Father McCabe

Hail Mary... Angels be there for our country. For the deceased of our parish eternal, rest grant unto them our Lord...

Executive Session not needed

Respectfully submitted,
Ron Clinch
